Working Together for Students

Upon creating your account you will then receive an email from the AVRSB web master to verify your account. That's it, you're ready to download any available tenders!

Downloading tenders from avrsb.ca registers you with us for that tender and resulting addendums. notification of addendums will be sent directly by email (to the registered email address), therefore it is your responsibility to check for addendums

Be sure to check often and remember to login to your account to view the available tender files.

www.avrsb.ca also has other valuable Procurement information, including how to do business with AVRSB and Procurement Division contact information.

And as always, the Procurement Division is available to assist vendors every step of the way, feel free to contact us any time.
